

Please respond to the Archdeacon at church or by calling him at: 720-862-4217 or by email: mcdonaldcj80@gmail.com. If one or two parishioners could take a few photos, then that would be helpful.

We welcome donations to the "Monastic Fund" today.

From the desk of Rdr. Andrew on October 20th:

The new St. Mark's Parish Website is live at <https://westernorthodox.com> (It's the same location as the old one.) It has a fancier look, and has links to flocknote for parish announcements as well as being able to accept online donations now! Please see Rdr. Andrew if you have any questions.

We're moving to Flocknote to send emails and text announcements for Saint Mark's Parish. Some groups have already started in our beta test, like sending out the weekly Altar Servers reminders. We need help with getting current contact information for names, email, cell phone, and street address. It also serves as the basis for our upcoming parish directory update. You can self-register (or fix our import errors) at <https://smp.flocknote.com>, or texting "St. Mark's Parish" (no quotes) to 84576. If you run a group that wants to send information, or just have questions, talk to Andrew Diederich. Thanks to Lisa Taylor for the suggestion. You may reach me at my e-mail address: andrew.r.diederich@gmail.com.

Thanks to Dana Huft for providing the "Bread of Hospitality" this morning. The Bread Schedule for the next few weeks: Dana Huft on November 10th, and Carol McCabe on November 17th and on November 24th, and Natalie Lickteig on December 1st and on December 8th, and Kathryn Reeves on December 15th and on December 22nd, and Shamassy Kristine Woolley on December 29th and on January 5th.

Metropolitan Hilarion's book "The Mystery of Faith" is in print again after a lapse of years. It might be worthy of our Church School Class. The books arrived this week at SMP and will be available in the parish hall for $25⁰⁰. Please, make your check payable to L.A. Press.

Thanks to Ron Lickeig and Rdr. Stephen Greenlee for replacing the pipe that was leaking from the ceiling in the hall way next to the Men's rest room. The plumber's estimate to fix it was $850.00! The pipe that needed replacing had nothing to do with the cold weather. It was just a metal reaction of galvanized iron and copper pipes put together in a most creative way... and needed to be replaced. The new stuff is a miracle plastic, 3rd generation, that really works. It is used in all modern construction. The sad fact for $850/hour plumbers is that motivated amateurs can do the work. Parts cost $25⁰⁰

Thanks to Guy Huft for arranging with a contractor to conform to the City and County of Denver standards to check the return water tech on the lawn sprinkler system and replace parts as needed. Our Ash trees on Vine Street have been treated and should live on for many years providing shade and cooler temperatures for the Churchyard.

Matushka Deborah is looking for the toaster and the "Bread of Hospitality" knife. Has anyone seen them?

19TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

NOVEMBER 3, 2019

Thanks to Father John Connely and Father James Tochihara for being our Celebrants and to Father John for preaching at both Services today.

The Altar Flowers are given in loving memory of William J. Matsch by the Miller and Matsch Families.

The Altar Guild will accept donations today for Altar Flowers on future Sundays. Please see Carol and or Mary Rench to learn more about serving on the Altar Guild. The ladies could use some extra hands. You can choose to work on Saturdays or Sundays or both days. It's up to you.

Following the first Liturgy, all are welcome to join us for Refreshments, Fellowship and the Sunday School Class in the downstairs parish hall. Thanks to Fr. John Connely for teaching the Sunday School class "for all ages" students at 9:10 AM this morning.

The Anglican Chant Matins will begin at 9:45 AM followed by the Solemn Mass at 10 AM.

After the second service, all are welcome to join us downstairs for Refreshments and Fellowship.

Thanks to Nancy Stuart Steffen and Fr. John Connely for providing the delicious refreshments for the social hours this morning.

We are asking parishioners who celebrate their birthdays in November to please bring refreshments to one of the Sunday social hours during the month.

Those Parishioners having Birthdays this month are Nancy Steffen, Emily & Graceyn Gallas, Michel Heeneen and Rdr. Adam Surber.

If you wish to participate, then let us know by signing your name on the Social Hour Calendar or by contacting Matushka Deborah by e-mail before 12 noon on Saturday. Her e-mail address is matushka.deborah@gmail.com. Please get your bulletin news, invitations, and notices in by Thursday at 12 noon: to matushka.deborah@gmail.com.

Khouria Judith Tochihara would like to announce that the Church Women will meet today at 9 AM. The ladies will be discussing the December Bake Sale, the Fleece Navidad service project and more. Hope to see you there! Where? There!

Good news, Rdr. Stephen and Nancy Greenlee will be hosting the Benedictine Fellowship Annual Pumpkin, Gourd and Red Apple Fund-raiser this month. There is a nice assortment of produce which was home-grown from their garden in their backyard! As it is the Greenlee's custom, they did not price things....they simply suggest if anyone wants to make a thoughtful donation to "BFSL" they could do so and receive a share of the Greenlee's Fall harvest. To learn more about the Benedictine Monastery of our Lady and St. Laurence, the Retreat Center and the consecrated Cemetery, please go to www.ladyminister.com. Bless us all for prayers, cash, and gourds!

The Altar Guild will be baking Communion Hosts at the church tomorrow at 10 AM. Anyone is welcome to come and assist.

Archdeacon Vladimir McDonald requests six more volunteers to help with the Colours for "Remembrance Sunday." That number includes standbys in case others cannot make it. Archdeacon needs all the volunteers to be in the Narthex by 09.30 on Sunday, November the 10th.
